WHEREAS, the Parties wish to set forth the terms and conditions under which the Provider shall perform the Services for the Client;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS

Capitalised terms used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in this Section 1, unless otherwise defined herein or in any Schedule attached hereto. In the event of any conflict between definitions in the body of this Agreement and any Schedule, the definitions in the relevant Schedule shall prevail.

“Affiliate” means with respect to a Party, any entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such Party.

“Confidential Information” means all non-public information of either Party, in any form, disclosed to the other Party in connection with this Agreement, including without limitation technical, financial, business, customer, and strategic information.

“Deliverables” means the materials, reports, software, and other outputs to be developed and delivered by Provider as set forth in Schedule A.

“Effective Date” means shall have the meaning ascribed to it on the cover page of this Agreement.

“Fees” means the fees payable by Client to Provider under Section 4 of this Agreement, as further detailed in Schedule A.

“Services” means the cloud migration, infrastructure setup, and managed services to be performed by Provider as described in Section 2 below, and as further specified in the Statement of Work attached hereto as Schedule A.

“Term” means the period commencing on the Effective Date and continuing until the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 11.

2. SERVICES

2.1 Scope of Services. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Provider shall perform the services described in this Section 2 and as further detailed in Schedule A (the “Services”). The Services shall include, without limitation: (i) migration of Client's existing analytics workloads from its on-premises data centre to Amazon Web Services (“AWS”); (ii) configuration of cloud-native infrastructure including but not limited to compute, storage, networking, and identity management; (iii) implementation of CI/CD pipelines; and (iv) ongoing managed services as set forth in Schedule B.

2.2 Change Orders. Any material change to the Services or Deliverables shall require a written change order signed by both Parties (a “Change Order”). No Change Order shall be effective unless agreed upon in writing and signed by authorised representatives of both Parties.

2.3 Subcontracting. Provider may engage Affiliates and pre-approved third-party subcontractors to perform portions of the Services, provided that Provider shall remain primarily liable for the performance of all Services.

3. TERM

The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and, unless earlier terminated in accordance with Section 11, shall continue for an initial period of twenty-four (24) months (the “Initial Term”), with automatic renewal for successive twelve (12) month periods (each a “Renewal Term”) unless either Party provides written notice of non-renewal to the other Party at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the then-current Term.

4. FEES AND PAYMENT

4.1 Headline Fee. In consideration of the Services to be rendered by Provider during the Initial Term, Client shall pay Provider a fee of USD 75,000 (United States Dollars Seventy-Five Thousand) (the “Headline Fee”), payable in accordance with the payment schedule set forth in Schedule A. The Headline Fee is exclusive of all applicable taxes, duties, surcharges, and out-of-pocket reimbursable expenses.

4.2 Fee. For the avoidance of doubt, the term “Fee” as used in this Agreement and any cross-reference herein, shall refer to the True Effective Fee defined in Section 4.3 below, and not the Headline Fee, except where the context expressly indicates otherwise.

4.3 True Effective Fee and Cloud Infrastructure Surcharge. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 4.1 above, the Parties acknowledge and agree that the Headline Fee does not include the Cloud Infrastructure Surcharge described herein. Provider shall add to the Headline Fee a non-discountable surcharge of ten percent (10%) of the Headline Fee to account for AWS infrastructure provisioning, baseline reserved instance commitments, and third-party tooling licences required to deliver the Services (the “Cloud Infrastructure Surcharge”). In addition, Client agreed during pre-contract negotiations to a one-time onboarding fee of USD 5,000 (the “Onboarding Fee”), which shall be invoiced together with the first installment. Accordingly, the total fee payable by Client during the Initial Term, inclusive of the Cloud Infrastructure Surcharge and the Onboarding Fee but exclusive of taxes, shall be USD 82,500 (United States Dollars Eighty-Two Thousand Five Hundred) (the “True Effective Fee”). All references in this Agreement and its Schedules to “the Fee”, “the Fees”, or the amount payable hereunder shall be construed to mean the True Effective Fee unless the specific section in which the term appears refers expressly to the Headline Fee.

4.4 Reimbursable Expenses. Client shall reimburse Provider for reasonable, pre-approved out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred in connection with the Services, provided that the aggregate reimbursable expenses during any twelve (12) month period shall not exceed INR 5,00,000 (Indian Rupees Five Lakhs) without the prior written consent of Client. Reimbursable expenses shall be invoiced monthly together with supporting documentation.

4.5 Late Payment. Any undisputed amount not paid within thirty (30) days of the invoice date shall accrue a late fee of USD 1,500 per week or the INR equivalent at the Reserve Bank of India reference rate prevailing on the due date, whichever is higher, until paid in full.

4.6 Taxes. Each Party shall bear its own income taxes. Goods and Services Tax (GST), withholding taxes, and other indirect taxes shall be borne by Client and grossed up where applicable.

Provider shall deliver the following Deliverables in accordance with the milestone schedule set forth below. All dates are estimates and may be revised by mutual written agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties agree that the financial terms of this Agreement, including without limitation the Fee defined in Section 4.2 and the milestone fee allocations set forth in Section 5, shall remain confidential indefinitely.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

10.1 Client Materials. All data, information, and materials provided by Client to Provider shall remain the sole property of Client.

10.2 Deliverables. Subject to payment in full of the Fee, Provider hereby assigns to Client all right, title, and interest in and to the Deliverables, excluding any Provider Pre-Existing IP and any general-purpose tools, libraries, or know-how developed by Provider independently of this Agreement.

10.3 Provider Pre-Existing IP. Provider retains all right, title, and interest in any tools, frameworks, scripts, or methodologies developed by Provider prior to or independently of this Agreement, and grants to Client a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to use such Pre-Existing IP solely to the extent embedded in the Deliverables.

11. TERMINATION

11.1 Termination for Convenience. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for convenience upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other Party; provided, however, that any Service-specific notice periods set forth in Schedule B (Managed Services SLA) shall apply to the termination of the relevant Service and shall override the notice period set forth in this Section 11.1.

11.3 Effect of Termination. Upon termination, Client shall pay all Fees accrued through the effective date of termination and any non-cancellable third-party commitments incurred by Provider in connection with the Services.

SCHEDULE B — MANAGED SERVICES SLA

(This Schedule forms part of the Master Services Agreement and overrides any conflicting provisions in the body of the Agreement.)

B.1 Service Levels

Severity	Definition	Response Time	Resolution Target
Sev-1	Production outage; complete loss of critical functionality	15 minutes	4 hours
Sev-2	Major functionality impaired; workaround available	1 hour	1 business day
Sev-3	Minor functionality issue; minimal user impact	4 business hours	5 business days
Sev-4	Cosmetic issue or enhancement request	1 business day	Best effort

B.2 Service Credits

Failure to meet Sev-1 or Sev-2 resolution targets in any calendar month shall entitle Client to service credits equal to five percent (5%) of the monthly managed services fee per missed target, up to a maximum of twenty percent (20%) of the monthly managed services fee in any single month. Service credits shall be applied against the next invoice and are Client's sole and exclusive remedy for any failure to meet the Service Levels.

B.3 Termination Notice (Override)

Notwithstanding Section 11.1 of the Agreement, the termination notice period applicable to the Managed Services described in this Schedule B shall be sixty (60) days. This longer notice period reflects the operational handover and transition assistance required to ensure continuity of Client's production workloads. Termination of the Managed Services shall not, of itself, terminate the Agreement; the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect with respect to any remaining Services and Deliverables.

B.4 Maintenance Windows

Provider shall conduct routine maintenance during pre-agreed windows, typically Sundays between 02:00 and 06:00 IST. Emergency maintenance may be performed with as little as one (1) hour advance notice where necessary to prevent material harm to the Services.
